²http://craftemergency.org/get_help_now

“CERF+ emergency relief assistance includes grants, no-interest loans, access to resources, waivers and discounts on booth fees, and donations of craft supplies and equipment¹. ... Beyond CERF+'s emergency relief available to professional artists working in craft disciplines, CERF+ has tips for any artist looking for help after a disaster or other emergency².”

Pollock-Krasner Foundation

<http://pkf.org/grant.html>

The Pollock-Krasner Foundation provides grants on a rolling basis to artists who “have genuine financial needs that are not necessarily catastrophic.” They will provide one-year of support and will cover professional work and personal living, including medical expenses.

Adolph and Esther Gottlieb Foundation

<http://gottliebfoundation.org/grants/emergency-grant/>

“The Adolph and Esther Gottlieb Emergency Grant program is intended to provide interim financial assistance to qualified artists whose needs are the result of an unforeseen, catastrophic incident, and who lack the resources to meet that situation. Each grant is given as one-time assistance for a specific emergency, examples of which are fire, flood, or emergency medical need.” Maximum award is $15,000; average is $5,000.

Artist Charitable Fund

<http://artistscharitablefund.org/index.html>
